

DUO TAUFIC

10 ANOS

RELEASE 2019

ROBERTO TAUFIC – A.GUITAR

EDUARDO TAUFIC - PIANO

"The Duo Taufic is totally affectionate, friendly, loving, overflowing good feelings with great music played by the Taufic Brothers who seem to be 1 in 2 or 2 on 1 ... The tone they manage in unison is beautiful, orchestral! The music gushes like abundant source, countless points of spring, fresh water, clear, harmonious and affectionate. It seems to represent a love that worked out, which has no rivalry or doubt. It is supportive, righteous and accomplice. The Duo Taufic's music is beautiful, better than words is hearing it so many times until the heart soften and cry a lot. Phew, amazing!" ... (Egberto Gismonti)

"These brothers, Roberto and Eduardo, music twins, are just brilliant. Only twins can play, breathe, sweat, make dynamic as they do in their concerts. It is a pride for all our musical class to see that Brazil produces musicians like these two. I confess myself a complete fan of this twin pair of music and sensitivity" ... (Roberto Menescal)

"Roberto and Eduardo Taufic drank the light of Natal and returned in the form of music, guiding us towards the best ways. Offshore lighthouses, treble clef and moon ... Hands full of affection and virtuosity united by fate and predestined to create beauty!" ... (Guinga)

"Two brothers like I've rarely seen. How they love each other ... (and make us know that through chords, melodies, silences, vents, gestures, cries, laughter and musical chuckle). And how beautifully they talk! With a crystalline and clear affection flowing from heart to heart, no noise, no filters. Voice of the natural instrument, necessary and clear: sound that hits and hit again, echoes, resonates and amplifies in the soul of the listeners. And it makes us happy. That's how good music is... made with much love, talent, care, rigor and spontaneity" ... (André Mehmari)

"The music of the Taufic brothers is very well played! Great quality and versatility" ... (Hermeto Pascoal)

"It's great to hear well played music, from ones who know how to do It! Do not stop ever!" ... (Ivan Lins)

The Duo Taufic is the result of the union of two experienced musicians, Roberto and Eduardo Taufic celebrating a more than familiar partnership. The versatility and the peculiar sound of the Duo reveals the musical knowledge acquired over the years and the immense creative content provided by the dialogue between the guitar and the piano. Descendants of Arabians, the two Taufic brothers awakened a love of music since childhood, always encouraged by their parents and family. The first original work of the Duo was recorded on the album "Bate Rebate" also released in special edition in Japan. Their careers took geographically different paths, promoting the absorption of such a diverse as rich sonority, showing a perfect harmony in a pleasant Music chat between the two musicians. The "Bate Rebate" Duet is a work full of spontaneity and improvisation, Brazilianness and lyricism, rhythms and colors, limpid melodies that are amplified in the soul of those who listen to it. The two brothers show all their musical excellence in the beautiful and sophisticated sound where the thread of the work is the respect and affection for universal music without limits, without labels and without missing the strong cultural influence of northeastern Brazil. The second album of the duo, called "Todas as Cores" is a layered work on emotion and virtuosity, sensitivity and commitment to good music that, as the title suggests, expresses the different possibilities of rhythm combinations, sounds and influences. Even more engaging, the new album brings a booklet with comments, track by track, by the giant of Brazilian music Egberto Gismonti. The Duo Taufic was born in mid-2008, where the two brothers met for the first time on the same stage to play only with each other, marking the beginning of this musical partnership. The Duo Taufic has been performing on the best stages of the world, such as: Auditorium Ibirapuera (SP), Jazz Club Biella (ITA), Jazz e Blues in Guaramiranga (CE), Garanhuns Jazz (PE), Chapada in Jazz (MT), Circuito Off Caixa (PR), SESC Arsenal (MT), Circuito BNB (CE), Choro e Jazz of Jericoacoara (CE), Perc Fest (ITA), Jazz Club Torino (ITA), Jazz a La Calle (URU), Fest Bossa e Jazz (RN), Natal Instrumental (RN), Brazilian Embassy in Rome (ITA), GuitarMasters (ALE), Ghislierimusica (ITA), Santander Cultural (POA), To Be in Jazz (ITA), Studio RJ (RJ), Maringá Jazz (PR), Musica do Mundo (PB), SESC LONDRINA, Le vie Del Suono (ITA), Jazz is It (ITA) among many others ...

Cd Todas as Cores Without losing the artistic concept of the first album, the DUO Taufic dips their creativity in a new project, even more matured and homogeneous, bringing new compositions and some reinterpretations of MPB Classics, such as "Upa Neguinho" (Edu Lobo), "Apanhei-te cavaquinho" (Ernesto Nazareth) and "Chega de Saudade" (Tom Jobim and Vinicius de Moraes). So the cd "Todas as Cores" was born, recorded in Milan (Italy), in the midst of a European tour. The new album features a fully emotional atmosphere with new and old songs of the duo, they sound like a carousel of sounds, styles and irreverence ... The virtuosity of the two brothers blends with the elegance and transparency of sounds, where each theme has a melodic sense very engaging. It's like going through the technical concepts without losing the beauty, giving an aesthetic ideal for a lively and delicate music. The DUO Taufic search thrill always to impress, always to impress, always to love; To make a fluent music, breathing, interacting, making happy those who listen to it. "Todas as Cores" contains a booklet with comments, track by track, from the wonderful Brazilian musician Egberto Gismonti.

Cd D'Anima This new project is completely inspired by the power of music to constantly change the world into an even better place, spiritually and humanly evolved where the energy and the power of music break the limits of the sound to touch the soul of the ones who listen to it. Thus D'Anima arose, which in Italian means "from the soul". Once again the Duo Taufic impresses the listener with new compositions always focusing on strong melodies and ingrained on the special sound of the Duo, masterfully orchestrating the piano and the guitar in the service of a common space, a full harmony and a clear and true sounding. "D'Anima" was recorded in Italy in 2017, It features thirteen songs, eleven authorial and 2 reinterpretations: "O Último Pau De Arara" by Corumbá and Venâncio, and "Lôro" by Egberto Gismonti, who is also honored with the track that names the album: "D'Anima". A very special fact is that the new album celebrates ten years of the DUO, and it brings on the cover and in the album sleeves a beautiful painting made by their Father (Taufic José Hasbun Yacaman) abstractly illustrating the keys of the piano and the guitar neck, thus completing a true family work of art.

Cd Terras (Duo Taufic & Barbara Casini)

"Terras" Duo Taufic's first album with Barbara Casini, produced by Jando Music and Via Veneto Jazz. After several years of collaborating and touring, Duo Taufic, together with the most Brazilian of all Italian singers, record an album to celebrate the living tradition of a land: the Northeast of Brazil - a metaphor of all the "terras" in the world, where beauty and suffering are intensely mingled together. Duo Taufic and Barbara Casini do this with unequalled energy and love, which is felt in every note. Barbara Casini, an exceptional singer, has always been in love with Brazil. During her career of over thirty years, she has collaborated with great musicians in the international jazz scene such as: Enrico Rava, Stefano Bollani, Fabrizio Bosso, Phil Woods, and Lee Konitz, as well as with renowned musicians in the Brazilian popular music scene, such as Toninho Horta and Guinga. She recorded about twenty albums and was among the first to introduce the Nordeste music in Italy: a music made of poetry, joy, rhythm, and dance but which also manifests the heart-breaking wistfulness that tells us of the pain and weariness felt in a land that is both unforgivingly harsh and overwhelmingly beautiful. The repertoire includes the classics Tenho Sede (Dominguinhos) , Lambada De Serpente (Djavan), Ninho de Vespa (Dory Caymmi), Paraíba (Luíz Gonzaga), among many others

Cd Tudo Será Como Antes (Duo Taufic & Paula Santoro)

A milestone in the history of Brazilian music is the movement known as “Clube da Esquina” – creating a new aesthetic, and birth to now famous composers. The Clube da Esquina began in, and is Minas Gerais, but at the same time is universal. If we wanted to set the Clube da Esquina geographically, we would first show the map of Brazil, then Minas Gerais, then Belo Horizonte, the streets of the Santa Tereza neighborhood, and finally the corner of Divinópolis and Paraisópolis. But it's much more than that. A group of artists got together to create a new kind of music and broke all frontiers! The first album “Clube da Esquina” was released in 1972. Forty years ago (1978), Clube da Esquina 2 was released as a double album, featuring the entire group of Milton Nascimento, Toninho Horta, Flávio Venturini, Marcio Borges, Lô Borges, Fernando Brant, Nelson Angelo, Ronaldo Bastos, Wagner Tiso, Beto Guedes, Tavinho Moura, Murilo Antunes. Born in Belo Horizonte (capital of Minas Gerais), Paula Santoro listened to Clube da Esquina from her childhood through the influence of her parents, and during adolescence delved deeper into the universe of Brazilian music. Duo Taufic always had deep admiration for the sounds of the Club, studying, arranging and presenting several songs that belong to this unique moment of MPB (Musica Popular Brasileira), both in Brazil and abroad. Starting from a meeting in Natal (capital of Rio Grande do Norte – NE of Brazil), the unprecedented partnership between the wonderful Duo Taufic (guitar and piano) and the great artist Paula Santoro emerged. The repertoire includes the classics of Clube da Esquina, such as "Travessia" (Milton Nascimento and Fernando Brant), "Nascente" (Flávio Venturini and Murilo Antunes), "Durango Kid" (Toninho Horta, Ronaldo Bastos and Fernando Brant)," and "O Sal da Terra" (Beto Guedes and Ronaldo Bastos), among many others. Remembering and celebrating the 40 years of this important moment of Brazilian Music is fundamental, so that we never fail to value the genius of these creators and of Brazilian music itself.
